

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Odd Fellows meet this evening.

All who wish to vote should register by next Tuesday.

To the wife of Theodore Hansen, at Tempe, October 8, was born a boy—12 pounds.

Robinson's show did not do very well in Tucson and is estimated to have left about $1500 with the town.

The Arizona Improvement Company had a Board meeting yesterday, at which matters of various interest came up.

The Democrats speak tonight at the Orme school house. The whole force will be there and no stone will be left unturned.

A force of men under James McMillan, at work on the Grand Canal, yesterday quit because of the rain. They were not from Oregon.

Old Dr. Hong Cong, who was for many years established in Phoenix, is now in Prescott, as is seen by his advertisement in the Prescott papers.

Marshal Blankenship proves himself an efficient officer on every occasion. Duty is his watchword and it is performed irrespective of personal position.

Vulture has lost most of its population. The miners have sought new fields where the gold can be washed out, above Wickenburg and near Antelope, the abundance of water facilitating placer mining.

The case of Supervisor Charles Blankenship came up in Justice Sherman's Court yesterday, at 2 o'clock. One witness was examined, who swore that when Blankenship drew his gun in F. M. Czarowski's face he caught the weapon and drew it under the counter. The trial was continued until 2 o'clock today.

The Mexican who escaped from the Insane Asylum Thursday was recaptured by Deputy Marshal Blankenship and placed in the City Jail until yesterday morning, when he was returned to the Asylum. The same fellow escaped under Dr. Titus' regime, last January, and was caught in Graham County.

Hon. T. J. Morgan, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, has consented to deliver a lecture, at the Opera House, next Sunday evening, upon the interesting subject of "Indian Education." The matter is one of much importance to the people of Phoenix and a large audience may be expected to greet General Morgan.

The statement made in yesterday's issue that M. E. Hurley had purchased the business of Clapp & McWilliams was an error. Mr. Clapp has purchased the interest of Mr. McWilliams and is conducting the business of that firm in his new shop next door to Long & Spangenberg, on Washington street.

There were just thirty-one persons present at the Democratic speaking at Cartwright, Thursday evening. Leaving out the candidates there was one more Republican in the assemblage than there were Democrats. Under such circumstances the meeting could hardly be expected to continue very much, and it didn't.

J. B. Tomlinson, cashier of the Nickel Plate Restaurant, was "held up" night before last, near the corner of Adams and Cortez streets. Tomlinson, instead of giving up his money, gave the fellow a fight, and succeeded in putting him to flight. A slight scratch, made by a slash of the thief's knife, was the only injury sustained.

PERSONAL.

H. S. Merrill went east yesterday.

Mark Smith will be in Phoenix on October 20.

Ben Goldman was up from Tempe yesterday.

E. F. Kellner returned from Globe Thursday.

Mrs. O. L. Gibbs, family and sister arrived from Chicago yesterday.

Nick Osborn returned yesterday from a short canvass among the districts.

Miss Kate Rudy and Miss Georgie Rudy, of Tempe, are guests at the Commercial Hotel.

Charles Goldman and family and Mrs. Leo Goldman returned yesterday from a visit to San Francisco.

W. H. Polts, Prescott, M. C. Helwig, Chicago, C. A. Rathburn, Chicago, are at the Commercial Hotel.

Mrs. William Williams and two daughters arrived by stage from the Phoenix mines last evening.

G. W. Carlyle and wife arrived in Phoenix yesterday. Mr. Carlyle is a brother-in-law of A. E. Hinton of this city.

Dan G. Gillette, New York; E. C. Rucker, Las Cruces, N. M., and A. L. Hall and wife are registered at the Mills House.

Mrs. H. F. Emery, sister of H. E. Kemp, arrived on yesterday's train from Vermillion, Dakota. Mrs. Emery will visit her relatives in the city.

Major Chaffee, Ninth Cavalry, will be the new Adjutant-General of the Department of Arizona. The Major is well known in Phoenix, having been for several years in command of Fort McDowell.

Tucson Star: Yesterday morning Rev. F. W. Dorn and wife, Rev. J. H. Cronch and wife, accompanied by Miss Lillian Adams, left for Phoenix overland via Florence. They took with them the stock of Rev. Adams.

Among the citizens' committee who interviewed Hon. J. T. Morgan Thursday was Major J. W. Evans, whose name was inadvertently omitted. The fact that Major Evans was one of the committee is sufficient to endorse their action.
